

WILSON WILL CALL EXTRA SESSION EARLY IN MAY

Peace Treaty Will be First Matter Taken Up

PARIS, March 22.—(By The Associated Press.)—A special session of both houses of the American congress probably will be called to assemble about the middle of May, the date when President Wilson hopes to return to the United States.

It is possible that if the treaty is sufficiently advanced, a special session of the senate may be called even earlier to afford it opportunity to deal with this subject before being called upon to direct its attention to other important matters, chief of which will be financial affairs.

It is held to be unnecessary for President Wilson to be in Washington when the call for such a special session is issued, for this may be called from Paris in advance of his departure from France. Mr. Wilson, however, has reached no decision regarding the question and is reserving the right to call the session at any time, but he has a more definite idea of the date of his return to America.

The president is also keeping in touch with the development of the situation in the United States toward a league of nations. If the situation appears to him to be such that it is not unlikely that shortly after his return from Europe he will make an extended speaking tour presenting his view of the issue directly to the voters in the states whose senators are opposed to the ratification of the league plan.

Wilson Will Return in May. Washington, March 22.—It was said unofficially at the White House today that President Wilson might return to the United States by May 1, leaving Paris immediately after reaching an agreement on the principal features of the peace treaty, without waiting for the actual signing of the document.

An extra session of congress not later than May 15 now is regarded as a certainty among officials and leaders in congress and the president is able to return as early as May 1 both houses may be called to meet very shortly after that date. Government departments by resorting to various expedients are meeting the situation created by the failure of appropriation bills in the last congress, but it is regarded as essential that these measures be passed before the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

The suggestion in Associated Press dispatches from Paris that the president might summon the senate in special session to consider the peace treaty in advance of the meeting of both houses was received here with interest. It was noted in this connection that the Republicans who will control the senate have taken a step toward organization, although the house Republicans virtually have completed their work.

Democratic and Republican leaders still in Washington agree that the sooner congress is called the better it would be. "I am glad to see it is going to do it," said Speaker Clark. "The quicker the better in my opinion."

Representative Mondell of Wyoming, recently chosen Republican floor leader, asserted that congress should be in session now.

LABOR BUREAUS TO BE KEPT INTACT

WASHINGTON, March 22.—John B. Denmore, director general of the federal employment service, announced tonight that thru state, city and private contributions already pledged the employment service would be able to keep at least fifty percent of its present organization together until the next congress provides funds for a full force. But for this support, Mr. Denmore said the employment service today would have been reduced to less than 20 per cent and have been forced to abandon much of its work of placing soldiers, sailors and war workers.

Nearly 25 offices in addition to the 50 offices which the employment service had arranged to operate and officials expect that it will be possible to keep many more offices going to supplement the work of the 2,000 emergency bureaus for returning soldiers and the activities of the employment service in the demobilization camps and on the transports.

COMMISSION WILL GO TO NEAR EAST

PARIS, Friday, March 21.—After a conference at the residence of British premier David Lloyd George yesterday afternoon at which General Allenby, commander of the British forces in Palestine was present, it was decided to return to the suggestion made by the American delegation and send an inter-allied commission to study on the spot not only the problems in Syria, Palestine, but in Ottoman Asia as a whole according to the Temps.

Strike of London Railway Men Still In Balance

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, March 22.—The question of a strike by the miners' railway men and transport workers is still in the balance. Prospects are regarded as bright for complete adjudication of the claims of the miners and transport workers; but the same cannot be said of the demands of the railway men.

After a series of conferences begun this morning and continued until late tonight the railwaymen and government officials failed to reach an agreement and adjourned to meet again tomorrow. While they were struggling with the problem tonight delegates of 130 branches of the union in the London district met and adopted a resolution declaring that they were "not prepared, without a strike, to accept less than the full demands contained in the national program which must include every railway worker who is a member of the union."

The resolution will be submitted to a meeting of the members tomorrow. It is understood that at the afternoon conference of which Sir Albert Stanley, president of the board of trade presided and at which Sir Robert Stevenson, minister of labor and Sir Auckland Geddes, minister for national service and reconstruction were present the government made a new offer affecting the engineers and firemen.

James Henry Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railway Men said at the conclusion of the conference that although the resolution of the railway men to strike still stood the public might rest assured that nothing would be left undone to avert its necessity.

GETTING READY FOR CROSS-OCEAN FLIGHT

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Six officers of the navy and one of the marine corps have been assigned to the trans-Atlantic section of the office of the director of naval aviation to do duty in connection with the preparation of plans for the flight across the Atlantic ocean which is to be undertaken soon by a big seaplane of the N. C. type.

As yet the crew of the plane has not been selected. Five men very probably will be the maximum number carried as all weight possible must be sacrificed to fuel carrying capacity.

In addition to the two pilots, two mechanics will be necessary. The commander of the ship will be the navigation officer.

Several new instruments for use during the flight have been perfected at the navy department but these are carefully guarded secrets. Close co-operation is being maintained between the naval officers and the weather bureau which will continue to prepare special charts and data concerning atmospheric conditions, air currents and the like.

ARRESTED WHILE TAKING HER BATH

CHICAGO, March 22.—Mrs. Margaret Reeves will not collect the $25,000 which a jury awarded her yesterday because Chicago policemen insisted upon arresting her when she was in her bath. Judge Joseph B. David of the superior court today reduced the verdict as excessive.

"If the defendants will pay and Mrs. Reeves will accept $22,500 I will enter judgment for that amount," he said. "Otherwise I shall reduce the award to $16,000 and allow an appeal."

The jury was justified in finding against the defendants who offered no defense. According to her story "this was the most outrageous police act that has ever come before me."

The case was continued a week to allow attorneys to agree upon a settlement.

WILL CONSIDER AMENDMENTS TO PEACE LEAGUE

Economic Clauses of Peace Treaty are Agreed Upon

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, March 22.—The peace conference committee of the league of nations met this morning at American headquarters this afternoon under the chairmanship of President Wilson, completed consideration of eight articles of the league covenant, the changes being formal. The important amendments concerning the Monroe Doctrine, the Japanese amendment for just racial treatment and the French amendment relative to the creation of a general staff were deferred for consideration at the next meeting to be held Monday evening.

The Japanese amendment has been revised so as to be introduced into the preamble and recites the equality of nationals of the states belonging to the league.

The economic subjects to be introduced into the preliminary peace treaty were definitely determined at a meeting of the economic commission today. The important subjects include the disposition of German patents, trade marks and copyrights and alien property, such as that held by the custodian of such property in the United States. The main subjects which will appear in the treaty are:

First, the future status of German commercial treaties with the allied countries all of which have been abrogated.

Second, a tariff arrangement under which trade may be resumed and providing against discrimination between the allied countries.

Third, a provision regulating pre-war contracts between German business interests and allied business interests which were suspended by the war.

Fourth, provisions for the disposition of German property in allied countries, mostly in the hands of government custodians, and also allied property in Germany. This branch includes German patents, trade marks and copyrights.

Fifth, a provision for the assembling of an international conference to deal with economic and commercial questions. The foregoing subjects are being drafted in treaty form for inclusion in the treaty.

LABOR LEGISLATION

Announcement was made by the peace conference commission on international labor legislation today that the only thing remaining for the commission to do is to draw up its final report to the peace conference. Today the commission completed consideration of the proposals laid before it by a deputations for women's organizations. The meeting was the thirty fourth and was presided over by Samuel Gompers.

The labor commission today introduced a clause into its report providing that no recommendation or draft convention shall in any case be accepted or applied so as to diminish the protection already accorded to workers by the existing law of any of the high contracting parties.

The clause is to safeguard legislation already in effect in the country which might be regarded by that country as better for the workers than that recommended by the labor bureau. The report was largely a discussion of the seamen's act in the United States and recognition of the possibility that the bureau might make recommendations on that subject which, while improving the condition of seamen generally, would not measure up to the standard fixed by the United States.

The labor commission has decided that the findings of the bureau must be supported by moral suasion in countries where special problems exist rather than by invoking any foreign force the league of nations might offer.

HEINTZ IN CHARGE OF G. O. P. HEADQUARTERS

NEW YORK, March 22.—Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee announced appointment of Capt. Victor Heintz of Cincinnati, Ohio, as head of the Chicago regional headquarters of the committee. He will be assisted by E. V. Childs of Ann Arbor, Mich. The headquarters will open Monday.

He was twice wounded in the Argonne Forest fighting, where his gallantry won him the distinguished service cross. Mr. Childs is a former Michigan newspaperman, and former secretary of the Michigan state senate.

BROKERAGE FIRM QUILTS

Chicago, March 22.—The brokerage firm of Lipsy and company, a $50,000 corporation to which notified the secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade that it had ordered all of its accounts closed. Victory Loan Will Call For Six Billions

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—With the announcement today that collections from the first 25 per cent installment payment of income and profits taxes last Saturday amounted to $1,001,000,000 and might go higher, the last financial milestone preceding the Victory Liberty loan had been passed and it seems probable that the loan will be for approximately $6,000,000,000.

Governors of federal reserve at a conference here were told that although official statements of the amount of the loan heretofore have referred to "five or six billions," the higher figure was nearer correct. Tax collections of a little more than a billion dollars indicated that the total tax yield this year from income and profits levies would be more than four billions and might reach the $4,700,000,000 estimate of congress. First installment payments will bring into the treasury only about $200,000,000 net now, since $300,000,000 is required to pay certificates of indebtedness maturing coincidentally with the tax payments. In support of the belief that the treasury would make six billions, the goal of the Victory Loan campaign officials pointed out that $4,855,000,000 certificates of indebtedness were outstanding to be redeemed out of proceeds from the loan and they said that probably another billion must be issued before loan receipts begin to pay in. Proceeds for the certificates will be required to pay ordinary government expenses for two months and to redeem a little more than $500,000,000 of certificates falling due before May 6.

The treasury has available funds to meet current cash requirements about $1,700,000,000. Officials, however, do not desire to let the cash working balance get below a billion dollars. Indications now are that unless the victory loan is largely oversubscribed the treasury will have to begin within a few months the campaign to market new securities selling them mainly to banks as a means of meeting future government expenses.

These would be in addition to the possible issue of tax certificates in anticipation of the last two installments of tax payments, September 15 and December 15.

HARVEY CHARGED WITH MURDER

PEORIA, Ill., March 22.—Coroner W. B. Elliott this morning began an inquest over the body of Ralph Corry, a taxi driver, who was shot to death last night by Thomas J. Harvey in a local saloon. Evidence at the inquest sought most to "get" was Henry Wyles, former county supervisor, with whom he recently had trouble. Wyles escaped by dashing out a rear door just as Harvey opened fire. John Biggs, an innocent bystander and a well known young man, who was shot in the lung, was in a serious condition at a local hospital today.

Harvey was formally charged with murder in police court this morning and ordered held without bail pending a hearing.

ASK THAT GERMAN CREWS BE MAINTAINED

Copenhagen, Friday, March 21.—At a mass meeting of seamen at Bremen a resolution was passed expressing the determination of the seamen not to permit ships to sail for England unless a promise could be obtained that the German crews would be allowed to remain on board, according to Berlin advices. As the provisioning of Germany is jeopardized by this refusal the German armistice commission has proposed to the allies that approve the placing of four small cruisers in force to guarantee protection, the immediate sailing of the German merchant vessels and the transport of food.

Discuss Senate Procedure on the League of Nations

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Reports from Paris of plans to entwine the constitution of the league of nations inextricably in the peace treaty developed discussion today among senators still in Washington of questions of senate procedure not hitherto emphasized.

Although a two thirds vote of the senate is required for the ratification of treaties senators pointed out that under the rule amendments may be adopted by a majority vote. Senator Borah of Idaho, Republican, a critic of the league plan declared this would give opponents a distinct advantage as it would enable a bare majority to revise the league constitution or separate it from the peace treaty.

Other senators said the majority rule might well become an important asset of senators supporting the league. The latter believe a majority favors a league of some description although they estimate that more than a majority oppose the existing draft.

Senator Pendergast of Washington, Republican, in a formal statement said tonight the efforts to coerce the United States into an acceptance of the league of nations by weaving the plan into the peace treaty, would fail. He said a sufficient number of senators to insure the defeat of the league already was on record against it.

Consideration of the peace treaty is expected to be among the first questions which will be taken up after the new senate is organized.

REPORT ON CRIMES COMMITTED BY BULGARS

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Extracts from reports of the international commission of inquiry which has been investigating crimes and atrocities alleged to have been committed by the Bulgars upon the Serbian population during the war were made public here today by the official information bureau of the Kingdom of Serb, Croats and Slovenes.

The reports charged that a reign of terror designed to exterminate the Serbian people in the Macedonia and Moravia districts was carried on by the Bulgarians and that thousands of civilians were tortured and massacred. Official documents, the reports stated, prove that the Bulgarian authorities gave orders which were directly responsible for the commission of the crimes.

Atrocities after atrocities is related in the reports. It was alleged that when the Bulgarians passed thru villages all the influential residents and the members of their families were put to death as were old men and women and even babies. Rich men were tortured to make them give up their money and then killed. It was charged.

The Bulgarians were particularly cruel to women. It was said, and instances were cited where the Bulgarians outraged and killed them in large numbers. Many instances were said to have been reported by eye-witnesses where the Bulgarians in moving masses of Serbians between internment camps or from one town to another, butchered the helpless victims. In burning bodies of the slain in the Gorges of Vrutica corpses were found piled on top of each other. Many of the slaughtered Serbs were not even buried, the reports asserted. The Bulgarian authorities were charged with having been especially fond of beating women and with having persecuted the Serbian clergy with pitiless cruelty. Many were buried alive, it was said. Those who were not butchered were interned in camps where thousands were said to have died thru excessive cruelty.

DISCUSSES BOLSHIEVISM

New York, March 22.—Bolshievism which he characterized as "the Socialism of the ignorant" never will again gain ground in Czechoslovakia because of the high intellectual standards of the people, Charles Pergler, first Czech-Slovak minister to the United States declared in an address here today at a meeting of the league for political education.

"We have an illiteracy of not more than two per cent," Mr. Pergler said. "Our workmen are intelligent and thoughtful and they know that those suffer most under Bolshievism whom the Bolshievist leaders most pretend to benefit."

LUMBER INDUSTRY HEADS FAIL TO AGREE ON PRICES

Discuss Revisions Similar to Those in Steel Products

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Representatives of the lumber industry and the industrial board of the department of commerce encountered many difficulties particularly to the trade in the conference, according to the board and revisions similar to those in steel products.

At the close of more than six hours of discussion it was announced that no agreement had been reached.

Hope of an agreement was held out however, in the decision to have a committee of the lumbermen remain in Washington for consultation with the board and to figures of the production of the costs of each section of the lumber industry. It was evident from comments after the meeting that any prospect of material reductions in the prices of their products.

John H. Kirby, of Houston, Texas, president of the National Lumber Manufacturers association, said production had gone out of proportion in the rise of price and that the increase had continued ever since the armistice was signed.

Will Submit Schedule

In response to the request of the board that the lumbermen take the initiative in submitting a schedule of revised prices, it was pointed out that nobody present had authority to take such action other than for his own plants and that even if an agreement were reached its effect would be local. Members of the board said that they recognized the difficulties involved as particular to the trade. S. P. Bush, presiding chairman in the absence of George N. Peak pointed out that the western fir producers were not represented and that there was no basis available on which to effect adjustment between southern pine, northern pine, hardwood and all the other varieties of lumber. Some of the lumber men were dubious as to the legality of any price agreements. What the board members told the lumbermen on this subject was not disclosed but it generally has been accepted that announcement of the agreed steel prices and the holding of today's conference following consultation between Mr. Peak and the attorney general meant that no obstacles would be placed by the department of justice in the way of agreed price reductions designed to improve the general economic situation.

A. C. Johnson of Dubuque, Iowa, representing some retail lumber dealers declared many buyers would begin construction as soon as it was announced that there would be no reduction in lumber prices. The trade at present was said to be good. Mr. Johnson had the support of the lumber producers in declaring that price reductions would have so small an effect on dwellings that they would begin construction rather than lower cost which was desirable.

Announcement of steel price revisions elicited favorable comment today from officials of the department of labor and the American Federation of Labor on the clause providing that "present wage rates or agreements will not be interfered with" by the reductions to the public.

WILL CONSIDER ALIEN CASES ON MERITS

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Every deportation case brought under the alien-anarchist act will be "considered on its merits" before final disposition, Secretary of Labor Wilson announced today in a statement answering the request of counsel for the I. W. W. for an interpretation of the law. "The act of October 16, 1918, is clear," said the statement. It states that there shall be deported from the United States alien members of the organizations believing in (1) overthrow of the government of the United States by violence, (2) overthrow of all forms of law, (3) opposition to organized government, (4) duty, necessity or propriety of assaulting or killing government officials, (5) unlawful destruction of property, (6) publication of literature, public speaking, or propaganda in private conversation tending toward the overthrow of the government."

Mackey Relieved As Head of Postal Telegraph Co.

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Differences between the management of the Postal Telegraph and Cable company and Postmaster-General Burleson which have been acute ever since the government assumed control of the telegraph and telephone systems, culminated today in an order by postmaster general summarily relieving the chief officers, directors and owners of the Postal company from all duties in connection with government operation of their systems.

In the place of Clarence H. Mackay, president of the company, the order appointed A. F. Adams, president of the Kansas City Home Telephone company and member of the government's general telephone and telegraph operating board, to take over management of the entire Postal system. Mr. Adams presented the order at the company's headquarters in New York today and took over control.

W. W. Cook, general counsel and William J. Deegan, secretary were named with Mr. Mackay in the removal order.

The departments announced said the action was made necessary by failure or refusal of the Postal officials to follow instructions, efforts to embarrass and discredit government control and failure to promptly put a new wage scale and the eight hour day into operation.

Officials said informally they assumed the Postal company would seek to interfere with execution of the order by some court action. The officers relieved of their duties under the government retain their connection with the company itself. Last January Mr. Burleson removed Edward Reynolds, vicepresident and general manager of the Postal, on the ground that he was obstructing operation under the government.

Wilkins, has been indicted on a charge of murder today began a search of the Wilkins' summer home at Long Beach in an effort to discover a third will reported to have been executed by the slain woman.

It was reported that this will bequeathed all of Mrs. Wilkins' estate of approximately $65,000 to the physician. An earlier will left him nothing.

WILSON TAKES UP ITALIAN-JUGO SLAV QUESTION

Ultimatum from Italy Source of Great Worry

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, Friday, March 21.—(By The Associated Press.)—Hope was expressed tonight in peace conference circles that by the first of next week a plan would be presented which would surmount the difficulty in the way of completion of the peace-making work of the conference raised by the threat of Italy to withhold approval of any peace treaty not definitely settling the Italian-Jugo-Slav controversy. President Wilson has the whole question before him and it is from him that the plan upon which hope of a satisfactory settlement is based is looked for.

The action of the Italian delegation taken as a unit amounting virtually to an ultimatum directed to the supreme council, gave great concern to other delegations today. Although the supreme council was occupied etc., as sent.

PROTEST MADE AGAINST DEB'S IMPRISONMENT

NEW YORK, March 22.—A suggestion that members of the National Security League and the United States "sneakers" service agents be ducked in the East River was heard by 500 radicals who attended an open air meeting today to protest against imprisonment of Eugene V. Debs, Socialist leader and other radicals convicted of violating the espionage act. The suggestion was made by Joseph M. Goldwell, Providence, R. I., who explained that Russian revolutionists had ducked all military police. Another salvo of cheers greeted Goldwell's announcement that Debs had declared he wanted, "first, last, and all the time to be known as a Bolshevik."

Scott Nearing, acquitted here recently of a charge of violating the espionage act, has given an ovation when he urged that all American workers unite in organization of an industrial commonwealth.

"This," he declared, "is the only means you have of obtaining real freedom. You must be ready to sacrifice your lives to this cause if need be."

Irwin S. George Tucker, another speaker proposed a nationwide strike on July 4 to protest against imprisonment of Debs and other radicals. The meeting was held under the auspices of the city committee of the Socialist party. Striking garment workers invited to attend a meeting today at the "Russian people's house" for the avowed purpose of organizing Soviets in all the city's garment shops disbanded when informed of a "tip" the police planned to raid the place.

RECEIVING KINGS AND QUEENS.

A newspaper head-line yesterday announced that Gen. Pershing had received King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium. Certainly democratic government is coming into its own, for the time is not very long gone by since it would have been an entire breach of etiquette to refer to a mere general as "receiving" one of the crowned heads of Europe. However, in this instance it must be remembered that King Albert, while ruling Belgium has made such concessions to his people that the government really accords them practically all of the privileges of a republic.

A MATTER OF HISTORY.

Speaking of Gen. Pershing reminds of the interesting story which comes to notice that when the now famous American general went to Alsace-Lorraine it was to the home of his ancestors. The Pershings came from Alsace-Lorraine less than 200 years ago and the fact has been substantiated that the great great grandfather of General Pershing wrote the prophetic hope that some day a descendant of the family might be instrumental in giving to the people of Alsace-Lorraine the freedom so earnestly desired. That prayer for liberty was answered, even the world events did not so shape that the answer could come quickly.

STATES WILL CO-OPERATE.

Gov. Lowden has indicated that the authorities of Indiana and Illinois have agreed upon a joint plan of road building which will be beneficial to both states. To the credit of the sister state on the east it must be said that at many seasons of the year the Illinois auto driver talks about travel to the east invariably winds up saying: "Well, we will be all right as soon as we get into Indiana." Certainly Indiana can give Illinois some points on the good roads question, and there will be a distinct advantage in co-operative action which will make the main highways thru this state connect up with the best Indiana roads.

THE LESSON OF FIGURES.

The record of the state of Oregon furnishes a good argument in favor of prohibition. The state has been dry for three years and the state prison population has decreased in that time from 566 to 289. In some states they claim the war has been responsible for the less number of men sent to penitentiaries but in Oregon the decrease began before the U. S. entered the conflict.

A GOOD RECORD.

Jacksonville friends of Earl M. Johnston have reason to be proud of his record in connection with the work of the American embassy at Petrograd. Mr. Johnston went to Russia as an aid to Ambassador D. R. Francis and it is known from sources other than Mr. Johnston that his work abroad has been of a kind to give him strong government approval.

To Ambassador Francis was given one of the most difficult tasks in the diplomatic work of the war and he had frequent reason to entrust to Mr. Johnston matters of vital importance to the government and to the peace of the world. Mr. Johnston has met every responsibility not only with fidelity but with a combined tact and resourcefulness which gives promise of later deserved preferment.

THE STATE MAY COMPETE

The legislative committee appointed to look into the alleged combine of manufacturers of road building materials and to ferret out the exact reasons for high prices, began its work in Chicago Saturday. Senator Dailey let it be known that the committee means business and if evidence can be shown that the prices are the result of a combine or agreement, rather than the production cost, a state law will be passed to get at the matter, if there is not adequate legislation already included in the statutes. But the threat likely to have the most weight is that unless some lower prices on materials can be secured the state itself may go into the business, is likely to have more effect on the manufacturers than the talk of prosecution or punishment.

Recent months have shown such a revision of thought upon the propriety of states or lesser commonwealths engaging in business that such a threat today means something. No man engaged in private business wants the state as a competitor.

MR. WILSON'S FITNESS.

Twenty one years' experience as an attorney is the record of George H. Wilson, who is Republican candidate for member of the supreme court in this district. During that stretch of years Mr. Wilson has been a resident of Quincy and his practice has been of a general kind to give him valuable experience. Those who have come into close contact with Mr. Wilson know that he is of judicial mind and competent and these qualifications, together with a knowledge of the law, give him the fitness for the bench which made his nomination feasible.

Mr. Wilson is making an active campaign thruout the counties of the district. He has the approval of a number of the most experienced attorneys in the state. Those who have given the matter thought know that in the next few years the state supreme court is likely to pass upon more questions of vital public importance than has been true for any like number of years in the past. This fact exists because of after the war questions and also because the legislation which may result in connection with the revision of the constitution. The court can well use a man of Mr. Wilson's intellectual and moral strength and virility.

THE POLITICAL POT BOILS.

Just now seems to be a time of trial and tribulation, of war and rumors of war in the political field here at home. There are candidates and "protested" candidates. There are men who desire political preferment in Jacksonville, yea they thirst for a job in the municipality as an old timer will for a drink of booze before many days. They are ready to go to any length, to adopt any device to get their name on a ticket. They may have been repudiated by the people at the recent primary, but that makes little difference—lightning may strike most any place and, who knows where it may hit. They are so certain of their ability to still further muddy affairs that they are attempting to swing the elephant by the tail.

There are men who do not greatly desire the direction of municipal affairs, but who have been friends into the lime light by their friends and by a majority vote of the people. Now they are in the race they are willing to tackle the elephant by the head—the mind and intellect and good sense of the people.

Do these men, who for the most part hide in the weeds and deny they ever "protested," think they can short change the people of Jacksonville, in the way they are proceeding? If one candidate who filed his petition one day late is ineligible, all who filed on that date are ineligible. Why discriminate?

The latest rumor is that a number of candidates are being groomed to go on an "independent" ticket to split up the Republican vote, so as to elect a man to the office of mayor by a minority vote of the people—so dividing the vote that the one receiving the highest number of votes be declared elected, altho receiving only a fraction of the total.

Can the protestors succeed? Who are the protestors? and Who do they represent? Should a man or men be placed on the Republican ballot for election who received but a small percentage of the votes cast at the recent primary?

Should men who received splendid, substantial and unequalled support at the primary be forced to an independent ticket (by petition) at the election? If they are so placed there is no doubt that the people of Jacksonville will ratify the choice at the primary by an overwhelming majority.

The get-together movement of the people and by the people, in this city will not be hindered or impeded by trickery.

Crazy Signatures.
I look on strife as out of place; it is absurd and a disgrace, and sane men seldom need it; but I would like to climb the frame of the galoot who signs his name so no one else can read it. I think all men while dwelling here should hand out smiles and words of cheer, and sing and dance and fiddle; but I would like to use a club upon the maple headed dub whose signature's a riddle. As transient guests we tread our patch and every sign of spite and wrath we ought to check and muzzle; but I'd be glad if I might slay the drooling idiotic jay whose signature's a puzzle. This sort of fellow has his gail; I hate his fancy, swirling scrawl, I simply can't abide it; I wonder why a human gink will fill his fountain pen with ink, and then get up and hide it? Oh, does he think he'll make a hit by throwing chirographic fit with asinine endeavor? And does he think that folks will say "Beshrew us this gysmte jay must be absurdly clever?" My time is worth two bones a day; I need it all to earn my pay, and I rear up and grumble and take the shotgun from the floor when I run up against the bore whose signature's a jumble.

"The Brand"

with

Kay Laurell & Russell Simpson

"The Brand" is Rex Beach's most powerful and appealing melodrama since "The Spoilers." Beautiful Kay Laurell, former favorite star of Ziegfeld's "Follies," and Russell Simpson, well remembered for his impersonation of the trader in Rex Beach's "The Barrier," head a big cast of notable screen-players. Audiences will see the secrets of the Klondike in the pioneer days when the weak and the strong from all parts of the earth stampeded the frozen Northland in the mad search for sudden wealth; they will see mining camps in full sway, manned by the denizens of the endless open of the far North and controlled by sinister, villainous huskies who seek to engulf others in the mysterious yet ever alluring whirlpools of the Alaskan gold fields; they will see wild dance hall scenes; the frozen trail of Alaska in the dead of winter; the first light of revenge and passion such as has never been seen on the screen—a fight that ends in the sensational branding of a man who has crushed the body and soul of a real woman carried under in the eddy of circumstances.

third with 18. The remaining points were split up as follows: Northwestern, 13; Purdue, 4½; Minnesota, 2; Iowa, 1½; Wisconsin, 1. The victory was repetition of the Wolverine triumph in the event a year ago.

The meet was a bitter fight between Chicago and Michigan, traditional athletic rivals in the west. The teams alternated in taking the lead and before the relay, the last event, Michigan led by four points. Chicago won the relay but Michigan finished second which gave the championship to Michigan athletes. Carl E. Johnson of Spokane, Wash., the 20 year old "ace" of the Michigan squad, was the individual star of the meet, scoring fifteen of his team's points. In the 50 yard dash he tied the world's indoor record.

The meet developed several spirited races but the thriller was the two-mile event in which Harry McCosh, captain of the Chicago team, defeated Sedgwick of Michigan in a remarkable finish at the tape.

McCosh nosed out the Wolverine by a scant two inches after Sedgwick had led practically all the way in the last mile.

TAXI TURNS TURTLE IN WEST STATE STREET

Owned by Patrick Taxi Company and Driven by George Siegel—Driver was Uninjured.

A taxicab owned by A. J. Patrick and driven by George Siegel turned turtle in West State street about 12:30 o'clock this (Sunday) morning.

The accident occurred in front of the Josephine Milligan school. Siegel was driving east in West State street and was in between the rails of the street car track. Judging from appearances he was running on the rim of the right hind wheel. When in front of the Josephine Milligan school he attempted to turn out for a west bound car. In some manner he lost control of the taxi which turned completely over several times.

When it finally landed the car was headed west and the rear axle on the right hand side was broken and the wind shield and all of the glass in the doors demolished.

A number of pedestrians on their way home were in the vicinity of the accident and rushed to Siegel's assistance. He was assisted from the car and aside from being severely shaken up escaped without a scratch.

He went to his home and Mr. Patrick was notified and took the damaged car to the garage.

SERGT. COLTON IN CAMP LEWIS WASH.

Sergt. J. H. Colton, who is in the army service and instructor at Camp Lewis, Wash., left last night for the west after a brief visit with his parents, at Woodson. Sergt. Colton was superintendent of the schools at Rockford, North Dakota, when he entered the army service last August. He was sent to Camp Lewis and was in a machine gun company and had been accepted for the officers' training camp when the armistice was signed.

Subsequently because of his fitness to serve as instructor in educational work, he was assigned to that duty in the reconstruction educational work, conducted by the medical department. He ranks now as a sergeant, first class, and is giving instructions to men in manual training work, especially as related to its curative effect. This means, for example, that men who have received certain injuries are instructed in this of manual work which will give relief from the injury which is handicapping them.

Camp Lewis is one of the permanent camps and includes 70,000 acres of land. The surroundings are such as to make it very attractive and the equipment is high class. Sergt. Colton recently had the opportunity for release but preferred to remain in the work for a period of months, partially because of the value of the experience he will probably return to his educational work in North Dakota next fall.

EARLY MORNING ALARM FROM STATE HOSPITAL

Fire Started in Clothing Closet in Nurses Home—Burned All the Clothing, But Damage to Building Slight.

Fire which started in a clothing closet in the nurses home at Jacksonville State hospital at two o'clock this (Sunday) morning caused an alarm to be sent to the fire department.

The fire which started in the home for women nurses, destroyed all of the clothing in the closet, but the damage to the building was comparatively nothing, as the blaze was practically extinguished before the arrival of the department, with only a slight scorching of the wood work.

There is some question as to how the fire started. The nurses who occupied the room had been cleaning the closet out on Saturday. Dr. Hill was of the opinion that the fire started from an electric curling iron, tho this is only a theory.

EARL JOHNSON TELLS OF STRICKEN RUSSIA

Jacksonville Man Secretary to Ambassador Francis, Tells of Condition of Country—Says Bolshevism and German Influence Menace to World Democracy.

Earl Johnson, secretary to Ambassador Francis, and for many years an esteemed resident of this city, arrived in Jacksonville Friday evening for a visit with his father, E. F. Johnson, and expects to leave Tuesday morning for Governor Francis at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia. The young man is looking fine and in splendid health. He says he has been for some months in Scotland, England, France and other lands where food is plentiful and has prospered.

Of course, the first question and many subsequent ones were regarding Russia, the land in which he spent several years with Ambassador Francis. He said in part:

The future of Russia is hard to predict and indeed looks most dark and dismal. The whole land is exactly like a helpless victim being led to death by a rampire and waiting for a strong power to remove the evil. Owing to his position it was not in order for him to offer any opinions or suggest remedies but only to tell facts.

The Bolshevists. The Bolshevists began with a theory of radical socialism which means that the producers shall have the entire reins of government leaving out all educated and wealthy persons. It began with the council of the people's commissaire which was responsible to the council of soldiers and workmen and peasants' deputies but it is not being carried out as an administration by the people as Lenin and Trotsky and their coterie select whom they please for officials and rule with a pitiless rod of iron.

The result is that practically all branches of manufacture are dead with possibly two exceptions, the places where they make cloth for the army, and munitions, and under the supervision of the government results are poor. All other lines of manufacture are practically dead. Railroads are almost dormant. Hundreds of locomotives are idle owing possibly to the lack of a minor part of insignificant defect which a skilled person could easily remedy. Hosts of the cars are out of commission in the same way but there are no machine shops for repairs. The government tried to take charge of the factories and run them but being under control of incapable and inexperienced men they soon became unmanageable and the wheels ceased to revolve.

Agriculture at a Standstill. Agriculture is in a deplorable state. Farmers are afraid to do much less knowing that if they make much of a show their crops will be commandeered. Then too, there are few agricultural implements for use on the farms and want starvation stares millions of people in the face.

Four Leading Classes. There are four leading classes in Russia.

The Red Army. The civilians connected with it, such as clerks, etc.

The intellectuals and educated, few left.

The capitalistic, formerly land owners, factories and business men generally.

Distribution of Food. The distribution of food is a matter of great importance. The first class are supposed to get three fourths of a pound of bread daily; the second a half pound if possible and the others a scant subsistence as they can catch it and the result is simply deplorable. One result of this harsh arrangement is to cause many to join the Red Army to keep from starving though they have no heart for it. What will be done in the future is impossible to foresee. The Bolshevists are perhaps a tenth of the whole population but they rule with atrocious severity and frighten and browbeat others to submit to them.

The Embassy Leaves the City. The Embassy was at the city of Volodga and they wanted to get us to Moscow where we would have been in their power. They cut off all communications and stopped our food supplies and matters began to look rather serious. Finally two Russian officers called on the embassy and expecting aid from the allies told us there were 600 of their kind in the city who would defend us if we needed it but later when the Archangel front was established these men had to join the Red Army much against their will.

The German Ambassador, Mirbach, was a very unpopular man and had many atrocious deeds to his credit. When he was assassinated there was a revolution of the cadets, Mensheviks, monarchists and other better classes but they were not properly organized or led. They took Moscow and Petrograd and tried to put down the Bolshevists but were overthrown and the Bolshevists sent word to Germany that 500 persons had been executed for the death of Mirbach. The hope had been to get rid of German influence. The fact is that Germany was years working up a propaganda in Russia. Many had settled there some had intermarried and insidiously German influence was extending throughout the nation and the influence there yet is immense.

Bolshevik Atrocities. The atrocities of the Bolshevik are frightful and no one in this land knows anything near all the facts. They rule by murder and rapine. Then too, the persecutions of the Jews through the ages have been immense and many Jews are joining the Red Army to get revenge for what they have endured. Five hundred Russian officers, worthy men who would have been of value to the world and their native land, were placed on a huge pile and thrown into deep water and scuttled with all on board. Admiral Shansky, a wise and highly useful officer once said that Trotsky was a Jew and so to get even that official had a sham trial and the brave man was executed.

Our forester, Roger Simpson, was arrested and thrown into jail with a fine young Jewish lawyer. The latter was taken out one day and seen no more and for no crime at all. For a hundred rubles a message was sent by Mr. Simpson to the Norwegian consul general who had charge of our affairs, and Major Wardwell of the Red Cross came and secured his release else he, too, would probably have shared the fate of his cellmate. Dozens at Volodga were taken out and shot in cold blood.

We went to Archangel and had to leave and went on to a city, Kandalaksha, in Lapland and thence to France and England, and were safe.

Bolshevism a Dire Evil. Bolshevism is an evil and a curse to civilization. They know nothing but murder and rapine and rule by terror. They are without statesmanship and ability to rule. They have steadily murdered the men who might help them and have spread death and desolation all over a land that should be one of the mightiest nations in the world. Their currency is flat and practically worthless. They print it by the million but it brings little outside their own land as there is nothing behind it. They have desecrated the character of womanhood and declare the marriage ceremony of no account and instead recommend the public ownership or general arrangement, babies to be cared for in public nurseries and women common property.

Their Religion. Religion is at a low ebb in Russia and the church has little influence. They are adherents to the Greek Orthodox Catholic church which was at one time a power for good but when Peter the Great ascended the throne he wanted to be the head so he displaced the patriarch and declared the czar or emperor was the real head of the church and appointed a procurator to manage its affairs and sometimes that person has been an infidel and the influence of the church which should have been for good has been wholly nullified and has descended almost to meaningless formality. The priests are not educated men, as a rule, and the church has been used for selfish ends and has little force for good.

The German Menace. The menace to Russia and all Europe today is Germany and blind will be the peace council at Paris if full account is not taken of that fact. For years the Germans have been scattering all over Russia, intermarrying and getting a foothold and once let there be the least chance and Germany again will go there stronger than ever and then there will be a war which will mean death to democracy.

Few firms are prepared to show Knox, Stetson, No-Name, Crofut & Knapp and Hill Loper Spring Style hats. FRANK BYRNS is desirous of having the one to please the man, so now shows the above lines of well known HATS.

REGARDING WHEAT. In nearly every direction the wheat prospects are good and if the weather keeps warm it will grow rapidly. An experienced farmer said yesterday that many fields should be pastured a while as soon as the ground is dry enough else the growth will be too rank. Some are pasturing now but the ground seems to be rather wet for that purpose.

Entertained in Honor of Daughter's Birthday. Mrs. L. E. Sargent entertained a company of little folks Saturday afternoon at her home on West Chambers street in honor of her little daughter, Elizabeth Bernice, the occasion being her eighth birthday.

The Sargent home was tastefully decorated for the occasion in pink and white. The afternoon was spent in playing games and during the time refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Sargent was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Lee Leitz, Mrs. Charles Fiedler and Mrs. William Farrington.

SPRING PLOWING

Already the plow is beginning to get in its spring work. There is little sod to break as it has been broken in times past in order to provide food for the army and the needy ones as well as our own. Some men are plowing for oats, among them men on the farm of Albert Crum near Litterberry; John W. Martin Wm. Crum and Oscar Peevey on the Rexroat farm. Most land is rather wet yet for the plow but there is some that will bear the plow where there is good tilling and the soil somewhat sandy.

PRIVATE COPLEY WRITES FROM FRANCE.

Mrs. Sarah A. Copley has received the following letter from her son, Private Elmer E. Copley, who is in service overseas:
Jan. 20, 1919.
Callac, France

Dear Mother:

Today being my birthday I thought it fitting and proper to write you a letter telling you how I spent the day in France. I got up at 6:30 and went to mess after which I rode to Callac on a big truck loaded with fire wood where we stayed and loaded it on to railroad cars. It rained all day but we didn't mind that as we have become used to that now. We came back to camp about five o'clock and made a fire in our tent and had mess consisting of roast beef, French fried potatoes, dried peaches, bread, and coffee. All we could eat and I sure got my share. I was weighed today and weighed 156 pounds. So you see I am not faring so bad. Walter Swift or Calvin Alsberry got home yet they were with my battery when I left it to go to the hospital. I haven't received any letters from home yet, but am looking for some most any day. I don't believe I gave you my address in my first letter as I didn't know where I would be permanently located. I sure would like to hear from you and all my friends too as a letter from home folks is the best treat of all to a soldier. We all have a good time and do not have to work hard. The people here are hospitable and do their best to make life enjoyable for us.

Well Mama how is your health these days? I hope you haven't had any sickness and not worrying about me, as I am in the best of health (never was in better) and am enjoying my stay in France better than I did at first. Of course I am anxious to get home and am coming just as soon as they say "roll your pack and heat it for the boat, you are going to the States" you bet I'll be right there then. I suppose Pa has got so used to doing without me now that he won't know what to do with me when I do get back. Well I'm going to strike him for a job anyway. And if you are all alive and well when I get home we have lots to be thankful for.

I left off here last night so will finish tonight. I just heard pretty good news tonight. I heard that I belong to the 2nd Casual Company of the 8th Infantry, and that they were expecting an order most any time to send us home so by the time you get this letter I may be riding the big pond for the states. Of course you understand we don't know how soon this order will come, but I hope it won't be long. When you get this letter I want you to write me so in case I, shouldn't get to come soon, why I'll hear from home anyway. But I think I'll be back in time to start school work. Tell Revie I'm still wearing the sweater she knit for me and it is quite a good deal longer than it was when I first got it as it has stretched so. Well I guess I will have to close as I've about run out of news, so tell Linkinkoers, Worths and Bryan and Lyndall hello for me. Also remember me to Mr. and Mrs. Collins. Tell Mary I want her to bake me a banana cake when she hears I'm coming for I'll be hungry for cake.

Well good-bye Mother, I hope to be with all of you soon.

With love from your son,
ELMER.

From Kenneth A. Schaaf.
The following letter was written to Mrs. Fred C. Benson of 442 South Mauvalsterre street by Kenneth A. Schaaf, now located at Camp Lee, Va.

Camp Lee, Virginia.
February 11, 1919.

Dear Friend:
I have enjoyed your letter very much, and the newspaper clippings. I am sorry to be so slow in answering.

We have been very busy the last month, as there are only five of us now doing what forty did before they were discharged. It has been surprising to me that we have been kept here so long. We had supposed over a month ago that the regulars would take over our work and we would be discharged.

Now it looks as if we would get our discharge next week as the Officers' Training School closes the fifteenth of this month.

I certainly wish I could have been there to the Masonic school. It was my good fortune to attend a Shrine meeting in Richmond last Saturday.

They had an elaborate banquet and there were fifty two candidates. Illustrious Elias Jacoby, from Mural Temple, Indianapolis, Ind., our Imperial Potentate of North America, was there and made a fine speech.

I am glad to say that old Ansar is far ahead of Acca Temple when it comes to doing things, and when it comes to hospitality.

You have been very good to me, both of you, and I shall be full of genuine appreciation and never forget it as long as I live. Camp life is becoming very monotonous and I shall be very happy when the time comes that I can come home and become a civilian again. Just as soon as I get home I shall be glad to make you a visit and am hoping to see you frequently.

I have never met the sergeant in the balloon school. In fact, have met very few boys except the few in our immediate area. I am sorry I have not more time to write a better letter. The time fairly flies, even if it is a monotonous time.

With best wishes, and hoping to see you in the near future.
Sincerely,
Kenneth A. Schaaf.

LEONARD BURKERY WRITES TO MOTHER.

New York, February 19, 1919.
My Dear Mother:

Your letter received today and was sure glad to hear from you all and that everybody is well at home. But feel very sorry that you are bothered with that old rheumatism and I hope you will get rid of it soon.

I sure wish you could be able to take a trip South with me but its like everything else a person gets tired of seeing nothing but water where ever you go when we leave New York we don't get a chance to put our feet on land until we get back.

This is the first time we have been in Guantanamo Bay and it is a heck of a place. It is place about the size of Woodson, Ill., so you can imagine turning 3 or 4 hundred ships loose in Woodson each ship carrying 3 or 4 thousand men.

Its nothing but a bay where all our battleships and destroyers go every winter for training so once you get down there you are good for two or three months swinging around on an anchor. Gay life if you don't weaken. But still it is better to be down there where it is nice and warm, than to be around New York freezing.

Now comes the big job the good ship Bride which is a supply ship which you all know all ready which is 450 feet long, has five hatches, each hatch has 8 big ice boxes in which we carry beef and butter. It has 5 decks below the water line which we carry flour and sugar and potatoes and all kinds of canned goods, and then we go out and supply all the battle ships and destroyers wherever they are at, just like a grocery store but we have no horse, ha, ha. Mother I don't want you to think I am sorry that I joined the navy or anything like that, because I am glad I went in when I did because I knew I would be drafted if I laid around, and I thought I would rather be in the navy than the army. Of course ahybe I could have done more in the army than I did in the navy, but I think last winter this ship and crew did as much work and went through as much hardship as any man in the army.

I go to church whenever I get a chance, of course not as much, as if I were on the outside because we are on the go all the time and we don't carry a priest like other ships do, but don't worry about me going wrong. I guess I have been around enough by now to know the difference between right and wrong.

I am a quartermaster and it is 2 o'clock in the morning and the officer of the deck is sleeping sound right now, so I thought it was a good time to write you this letter. I am the only one awake now except 3 or 4 firemen and they are far down to talk to, to keep company with, so I am all alone.

I am on watch until six o'clock in the morning and then I can go ashore or do anything I want to do. I don't have to go on watch again for four days.

We are alongside of a dock now and waiting to start to load up again for Cuba. We just got in last night and it sure is cold compared to what it was down in Cuba. We were in swimming three times a day and we had some fine pets swimming with us, man-eating sharks, big as a house, but outside of all that, we had a pretty good trip of it. It was so rough for about 4 days that I thought we never would see land again, but you get used to that in time.

We brought back some soldiers of the sea a bunch of marines and if they call their self soldiers of the sea, I want to be aviator. I never saw such a sick bunch in my life from sea sickness. Well mother I want you to tell papa I also received his letter and was glad to hear from him and I will write him and Margaret a letter today. Well I guess I will close as it is 3 o'clock and I got to go and wake the cooks, so they will have our beans ready for breakfast. Beans is our breakfast every Wednesday morning.

With love to all,
Leonard.

Letter From Walter Barber.

Mrs. Edward Johnson of this city has received the following letter from her brother, who is in the navy in southern waters: Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, Jan. 24, 1919.

Dear Sister and Family:
Will write you again, in answer to your recent letter. A sailor is always glad to receive letters from home and friends, especially when we are out of the United States. It takes a letter about 10 or 12 days to reach me from Illinois. Since our return voyage from the Panama Canal, we are still in Cuba where it is as hot in January as it ever gets in Illinois in July or August. And in the land of oranges, bananas, coconuts, palms, pine-cane and tobacco.

It took 15,000 employees and cost $1,000,000 to send out 1,200,000 checks from the war risk insurance department in Washington last month. That is a rather expensive department and probably there were thousands who did not receive their allotments, if the same condition exists in other cities that holds in Jacksonville.

Miss Marie Fitzpatrick of Woodson has received the following letter from her cousin, Frank Schneider now stationed in Kreuzberg, Germany:

Kreuzberg, Germany,
February 22, 1919.
Dear Cousin Marie and All:
Will now drop you those few lines to let you know that I am still O. K. and hope this will find you all the same. I received your letter dated February 4th and was certainly glad to hear from you. It has been a long while since I last heard from you. I also got the picture, and think it is very good of you and Margaret. I had some pictures taken last Sunday and if they are any good I will send you one of them.

You asked what we are doing here in Germany. We are not doing much of anything to speak of only guard duty and taking care of our horses. It seems rather funny to be here among the Germans and only a few months ago we were fighting them. But they behave all right around here and I expect them to. But we are here as much for their good as ours.

This sure is some country where we are. All there is mountains, and plenty of them.

There are some good size towns but nothing like good old U. S. A. I have already taken a trip down the Rhine river on an excursion boat. The trip was fine altho it was rather cold at the time. It has got as cold as 16 below, but co, etc. And where you see large cactus trees, and where cotton grows on trees rather than on stalks. Where the natives, who are a very dark people, of Span-Indian and Negro blood, live in small houses, built of sticks and dobbin and thatched with grass, and plow with oxen and use two-wheel carts for wagons, drawn with one horse.

We had a fine turkey dinner, etc., Christmas and New Year's on the ship, and went ashore in the afternoon.

Every few days we sail out on the ocean, for target practice, to fire our big 12-inch guns, (cannons), and when these are fired the whole ship jars and rattles considerably.

We also have all kind of games and contests, in rowing, swimming, boxing, wrestling, football, basketball, baseball and ride teams, etc. Have swimming parties every afternoon and go ashore quite often, on the rifle range, as sailors must know how to shoot Springfield models the same as soldiers and marines.

We have many different kinds of drills, such as emergency drills, general quarters, quarters, torpedo defense drills, abandon ship, fire and collision and fire and rescue drills, and there are liable to be ordered by the commander at any time of the day or night, and if at night, it means for every man aboard ship to wake up, and roll out of his hammock and get to his individual station or battle station at once and in some of these emergency drills, when the order is given, it means for every man to hurry and put on a life-preserver, and as soon as the life-boats, rafts, and motor sailers are quickly and skillfully hoisted and lowered overboard into the deep water, for every man to leap overboard, whether it's over the stern of the ship, 30 feet, and whether he can swim or not, into the water, to be picked up by the rescue detail. These drills are very important, in case our ship sinks in mid-ocean, to save the crew, as one thousand men would be hard to control, were they not well drilled!

Can you imagine that a modern dreadnaught, such as the "North Dakota" is a little city afloat, with a crew of over 1,000 officers and enlisted men, with all the conveniences to be found in any city of the same in population, such as a postoffice, two barber shops, of five chairs each, (one for officers, the other for the enlisted men); a library and reading room, a separate compartment, where we have good church services every Sunday; a laundry, carpenter's shop; electrical work-shop, ice plant, evaporator, (to purify water); electric power plant or dynamo; dispensary, hospital wards, "sick-bay"; dentist's office. Besides, two good doctors, two kitchens, one scullery, where all dishes are washed and sterilized; a canteen, (a store); two scullery butts, tanks where ice-cold water is kept, with six or eight faucets to each; two wash rooms and toilets, chart house, two large engine rooms, besides the anchor and steering engines; four fire rooms, with four boilers each, burns both coal and oil, some of our latest ships are run by electricity for instance the U. S. S. "New Mexico".

We have lots of good music on this ship, have a band of some 30 pieces, and two pianos, etc.

Guantanamo Bay is on the southeastern coast of Cuba, some 500 miles or more from the city of Havana, the place of the Willard-Johnson fight.

We are 800 or 900 miles from Key West, Fla., and 1,500 miles from New York, our home port.

"Uncle Sam's" great feet is due here soon, and we do not expect to return to the states till about next April or May.

I want you to send me some small kodak snap-shot pictures, if you have any. These are about the only size picture a sailor can keep in our ditty-box.

has moderated. Today is just like a spring day. It kind of makes me homesick. But I have been homesick so much that it don't affect me any more.

It is rumored around camp that we will be sailing for home in a short time but that is all I have heard since the armistice has been signed. So don't look for me until you see me. I put in for a pass to France today. I don't know if I will get it or not. Some of the boys got 14 day passes to go anywhere except the U. S. and Berlin. I would like to go to England, then I would be satisfied.

I've seen all of France and part of Belgium and part of Germany. I am not satisfied in one place any more. At the front we were kept so busy driving the Huns, that I got the habit. But the danger is all over with now, and I have come out without a scratch, after being on the front nine long months without relief.

We sure did go through some hardships but we are enjoying the fruits of victory now, and some day I will come back and then I can tell you all my experiences, which would be much better than writing for I could not begin to write them.

I will close as taps are blowing and I am sure sleepy; on guard last night. Tell all hello and best regards. With love,
Your loving cousin,
Frank Schneider.

EXTRACTS FROM LETTER OF CORP. ROBINSON

Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Robinson receive interesting letter from son in France—Tells of Meeting With Morgan County Boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Asa M. Robinson of North Main street are in receipt of a letter from their son, Corporal Frank A. Robinson, who is now with the forces overseas. A few extracts from the letter are given here with:

Presnes, France, Feb. 24, 1919
I went down to Les Dammes again yesterday to see Harry Barnes. It was 9:30 before I was ready to start but at that I had plenty of time and took an easy gait going on a bicycle. As I am not used to the riding stunt now I knew I would wear me out if I worked too hard and tried to ride too fast, so I took it easy. I think it was about 10:30 when I got there, and I rode straight out to Harry's billet.

"I went up to his bunk and looked for him there. Asked for him and was very much surprised but very glad to hear that he had been transferred to the first army corps orchestra. He has the very responsible position of base violin player and he is just the boy for the place, and I know he will make good, both in the orchestra and with his officers. I was sorry not to be able to see Harry but I was glad he had gotten away from that confounded pick and shovel gang. He has a place much more pleasant and there is a dandy good bunch of fellows there at headquarters. You know that is at Tourniere, where we were for two weeks a short time ago.

"I looked around for some of the other Jacksonville boys but I couldn't find any right then at Harry's old billet, so I went to the Y. Why should I run into up there but Gardner. He is working in the Y there at the canteen. I sat with him until dinner time and we went over to his company to eat. I had a dandy good dinner too, and enjoyed eating it with Gardner. We both went back to the Y after dinner and he unlocked the place and we stayed there until the other fellows came to relieve him. We got away from there about 2 o'clock and walked over to the K. C. building, and ran into Carrigan there. We three then sat around there and talked all the afternoon. Sure seemed good to get back with someone whom we really knew and who came from your own town. It rained off and on all day, so we stayed there in the K. C. building until 3:30 and enjoyed ourselves.

"I didn't want to try riding back in the dark so started home about 3:40 and got there in good season for supper. I knew I had to be back for orchestra at the Y, so it was up to me to get back in good season.
"I was elected to play the tenor saxophone and Sgt. Harry Reid was elected to take my alto saxophone for the quartet last night, and in spite of the way we were mixed up we made it go all o. k. The orchestra played all evening, with our vocal soloist on for a couple of numbers."

STATE ACADEMY OF SCIENCE ENDS SESSION

Twelfth Annual Meeting Came to Close Saturday Afternoon—Officers Elected for the Coming Year—Illinois College Faculty Gave Complimentary Luncheon.

The twelfth annual session of the Illinois State Academy of Science came to a close Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The delegates, nearly all of whom returned to their homes on late afternoon and night trains, before adjournment passed resolutions expressing their appreciation of the courtesies shown them by the Jacksonville committees. Thanks were also expressed to the authorities of the local colleges for the courtesies extended. The officers elected for the coming year are:

President—Dr. Henry B. Ward, University of Illinois.
Vice President—Dr. George D. Fuller, University of Chicago.
Secretary—Dr. J. L. Pricer, Norman University.
Treasurer—T. L. Hankinson, Charleston.
Librarian—A. R. Crook, Springfield.

After the morning program which included several papers carried over from Friday, the delegates adjourned to Academy hall for a complimentary luncheon given by the faculty of Illinois College. The visitors found that most generous preparations had been made for their entertainment and this social feature was greatly enjoyed.

The morning program included the following:

Chemistry—Dr. Roger Adams of the University of Illinois.
Geology—F. W. DeWolf, chief of division of geological survey.
Botany—Prof. John M. Coulter, University of Chicago.
Medicine and Public Health—Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, chief of the department of public health.

Barberry Eradication Campaign—J. E. Kempton, University of Illinois.
Use of central district coals in water gas manufacture—William A. Dunkley, geological survey division.

Museum of Natural History in the University of Illinois—Dr. F. C. Baker.

Illinois Pyrite Inventory—Gilbert H. Cady, geological survey division.

Current Tendencies in Science Education in Secondary Schools—J. D. Pricer, State Normal university.

At 2 o'clock the final session was begun at Illinois college. The events of the afternoon were practically in accordance with the following program:

Papers on Botany
The Scarlet Oak of Northern Illinois—Professor William Trelease, University of Illinois.

Some floristic and ecological features of the woodlands of Cook county—Professor Henry C. Cowles, University of Chicago.

Studies in the North American Opuntia—C. Z. Nelson, Galesburg. Soil as a limiting factor of forests in La Salle county, Ill.—Dr. Geo. D. Fuller, University of Chicago.

Some mushrooms which are rare or have not previously been reported from Illinois—Dr. W. B. McDougal, University of Illinois. (Lantern).

The occurrence of a white form of Tradescantia virginica, in Southern Illinois—Clarence Bonnell, Harrisburg Township High School.

Papers on Zoology
A Mussel Survey of the upper waters of the Vermilion river, with special reference to Salt Fork, Dr. Frank C. Baker, University of Illinois. (Lantern).

Life history notes on Illinois fish—Professor T. L. Hankinson, Eastern State Normal School, Charleston.

Preliminary survey of the Acanthocephala fishes of the Illinois river—Dr. H. J. Van Cleave, University of Illinois.

Keys for the separation of the Bremidae, or bumblebees of Illinois and other notes—Theodore H. Frison, University of Illinois. Observation of the Kentucky Cardinal—Miss Marion J. Miller, Illinois College.

Bird Songs—Anne Wakely Jackson, Illinois College.

It is not unfair to others on the program to make special mention of Miss Jackson's presentation of "Bird Songs." This address included data gathered by Miss Jackson thru years of study and but little known to the average observer. Locally Miss Jackson is known as a specialist in nature study and her talks on birds are always found of a most interesting and informing kind. The session adjourned at the hour indicated.

WAR ON BARBERRY IS TO CONTINUE

Dr. Kempton Here for U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Dr. F. E. Kempton of the U. S. Department of Agriculture is in the city to check up the work of last year in connection with the common or purple barberry. Dr. Kempton's advice to the public is: "Remove your common or purple barberry and do it now." Last year a complete survey of Jacksonville and the county was made and practically every barberry bush of the dangerous kind was located.

This year the work is very similar and Dr. Kempton's duty is to check up from that list and see that the weed which is a menace to wheat and other grain crops, is removed. The matter deserves special attention now because the barberry should be pulled before the leaves appear.

Dr. Kempton, who is here to attend the sessions of the state academy, is quite well known in Jacksonville, as he spent a year here as a member of the faculty of Illinois college during the absence of Professor Isabel Smith.

MISS BRUHN COMING TO SCHOOL FOR DEAF

Well Known Educator Will Give Week's Course of Instruction to Teachers.

The coming of Miss Martha E. Bruhn to Illinois School for the Deaf this week is looked forward to with great interest by the members of the faculty. Miss Bruhn is the principal of the Muller-Walle school of lip reading and the Muller-Walle training school for teachers, located at Boston. Both institutions have a nationwide reputation. Miss Bruhn will arrive tonight and will spend a week at the school for the deaf where she will be the guest of Supt. and Mrs. White. There will be lectures to teachers each day of the week. Miss Bruhn is one of the foremost, or perhaps the foremost, instructor in lip reading in the U. S. She was trained at the Muller-Walle school in Germany and about ten years ago began her work in this country and it has, as indicated, attracted nationwide interest.

The system Miss Bruhn teaches is one especially helpful to the adult deaf—that is, to those who are hard of hearing and those who are losing their hearing. The course of lectures to be given here has been presented with very beneficial results at many of the state schools for the deaf thru out the country. A group of teachers at the Illinois school had about perfected arrangements for the coming of Miss Bruhn on their own account. The matter came to the attention of the board of public welfare and it was very soon decided that the board would take care of the expense if the course of lectures was made available for the entire teaching force. This action of the board resulted in a considerable saving for the teachers and they of course greatly appreciated the action taken by the state board.

Miss Bruhn has been coming to Chicago at a stated time each year and the course here was so arranged that the date would come after her Chicago work. In addition to other work in the east Miss Bruhn lectures each year to the normal training class at Northampton, Mass.

SUFFERING FROM SLEEPING SICKNESS

Mrs. Earl Hill of Chicago who was called here by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Jerry Cox appears to be suffering from what is known as sleeping sickness. She recently recovered from an attack of influenza and in recent days has been in a kind of lethargy. It is impossible to arouse her at such times. Local physicians are of the opinion that sleeping sickness is an affection of the nerves of the brain which is an after effect caused by the influenza.

AN UNUSUAL WEATHER RECORD

George H. Hall of Alexander was a visitor in Jacksonville Saturday. Talking about weather conditions, Mr. Hall said that the records of the state observers' department show that February was the warmest ever known in Illinois. There have been some warmer February days than recorded last month but never before so far as known, was there a February in Illinois wherein the thermometer did not go below zero on some day.

FIRST REGISTRATION DAY WILL BE TUESDAY

Judges Will Meet for Purpose of Listing Names of Voters Tuesday March 25.—Second Registration day April 8.

Tuesday March 25 is the first day of registration for the coming election for city officers which will be held Tuesday April 15.

Under the general election law there are two days of registration for all general and special elections. The second day of registration will be Tuesday April 8, the law specifying the days as three weeks and one week before the election.

On the first day of registration the judges will meet at the respective places at 9 o'clock a. m., and proceed to make a complete list of all of the qualified voters known to them in the district. At this registration any legal voter of the district can have the name of any voter placed on the register.

Following the completion of the register the judges will place one copy in a convenient place outside the voting building so that all voters may inspect it to see whether or not their names are entered.

On the second day of registration the judges will meet at the voting places at 8 o'clock in the evening and remain in session until 9 o'clock in the evening. They will revise the register, removing the names of any persons who have been found to not be legal voters and any who have died or removed from the district. Those who have not been registered on the first day must go in person on the second day in order to have their names placed on the register.

As the judges only remain at the voting places long enough on the first day to prepare the register it would be well for all voters to call at their respective voting places some time between the hours of 9 a. m., and probably the noon hour as many of the judges have their work so outlined that they will complete it by that time.

RELATES EXPERIENCES IN ENGLAND AND FRANCE.

A man who offered $100 to fire a cannon at the Germans felt the urge of the war. Dr. Gammon went over to England and France at the invitation of the British and French governments and is at present relating his experiences in those countries. He has a great story. As an editor and educationalist Dr. Gammon is well known but his speaking ability shows itself in his ready wit and his power of portraying what he has witnessed. He has traveled the fields of France where the French, British and American heroes are buried. He saw conditions in England and will relate his experiences at the Community Forum this evening at the Congregational church.

MIR. MOORADIAN LEAVES

P. M. Mooradian, the native Armenian who has been selling oriental rugs at the store of Andre & Andre the past few days, expects to leave the city Monday morning. He had with him a fine assortment of rare goods and made a number of sales while in the city. He is a very pleasant gentleman to meet and longs for the day when his afflicted countrymen will be free and safe from the oppression to which they have been subjected for centuries. He is an intelligent and well posted man on the geography and people of his native land and one very pleasant to meet. He was thinking of going to Oklahoma with his goods after leaving this city. He ran away from his native land when he was sixteen years old and has made his way here with great credit. He has a home and family in Wisconsin and is to all intents and purposes a thorough citizen of the United States.

CHANGE IN MAIL CARRIERS AND ROUTE.

The residents of Joy Prairie and vicinity are up in arms over a proposed change in mail carriers which will be of great disadvantage to them. With a sudden desire for economy Postmaster General Burleson, or some of his assistants, are redistributing or rearranging the mail routes over a large area with a view of eliminating a number of carriers and the plan is to put the Joy Prairie people on the route out of Concord instead of out of Chapin as at present. All mails come into Concord around noon so that the mail matter for the prairie with its large list of patrons would be a day old and to say they feel sore is to put the matter lightly.

THOMPSON FAVORITE IN ELECTION BETS

Six Cornered Mayoralty Election Campaign Now in Full Swing—Political Observers Perplexed in Attempting to Pick Winner

CHICAGO, March.—Mayor William Hale Thompson is favorite in the betting in Chicago's exciting six cornered mayoralty election campaign now in full swing. This fact was revealed by the posting of the following prices by James O'Leary, bookmaker on election bets:

Mayor William Hale Thompson, Republican, 1 to 2.

Robert M. Sweitzer, Democrat, 8 to 5.

Macley Hoyne, Independent, 3 to 1.

John Fitzpatrick, Chicago Labor Party, 25 to 1.

John M. Collins, Socialist, 1,000 to 1.

Adeph S. Carn, Socialist Labor, 10,000 to 1.

With the largest registration in the city's history and party lines certain to be ignored April 1 by thousands of men and women voters, political observers are perplexed in attempting to pick the winner.

The total revised registration is 795,977, of which 495,222 are men and 302,755 women. The largest registration is reported from the 25th ward, a Republican stronghold, where the total vote is 47,070. Of this number 26,948 are men and 20,122 women. The smallest vote is in the 20th ward, on the west side, where the total is 7,191. A majority of the voters in this ward are Hebrews.

Mayor Thompson, Republican, defeated Sweitzer, Democrat for years ago by a plurality of nearly 150,000. It was a race between the two candidates of the big STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles. If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, azy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

parties, but this spring there are six candidates and conditions are materially different.

Four years ago Mayor Thompson defeated Chief Harry Olson of the municipal court for the Republican mayoralty nomination by several thousand, while this year he defeated the same candidate at the primaries by nearly 40,000.

Mayor Thompson is making his campaign on Republican national issues. Altho he won a decisive victory at the primaries, he will not receive the undivided support of the Republican organization and will, it is believed, lose many thousand independent votes he received in the fight for year ago. In many ways prominent Republican leaders are outspoken in their opposition to the mayor in the present campaign.

Indications are that in certain wards the mayor will not receive more than the lukewarm support of the regular party organization. He is relying chiefly on his own personal organization, the city hall machine, to carry his campaign to success. In the past it has proved a very effective vote getting organization.

Mayor Thompson is being assailed by all his opponents for his war record and his administration of city hall affairs.

Sweitzer, who won an easy victory at the primaries over Thomas Casey for mayor, Democratic nomination, is being enthusiastically supported by the regular Democratic organization of which Roger C. Sullivan is the guiding spirit altho he holds no official position.

He expects to receive the votes of many thousands of Republicans who decline to support Mayor Thompson. His political enemies accuse him of being the candidate of public service corporations because of his close intimacy with Sullivan. He is carrying his third terms as county clerk.

Hoyne is a Democrat and is serving his second term as states attorney. He is political supporter of former Mayor Carter H. Harrison and has fought Sullivan in Democratic politics for years. He declined to enter the Democratic primaries, preferring to run as an independent candidate by petition.

He expects to receive the solid vote of the anti-Sullivan Democratic faction composed of followers of former Governor Edward F. Dunne and former Mayor Harrison as well as a heavy Republican and Independent vote.

Fitzpatrick, president of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and candidate by petition of the recently organized Chicago Labor party, is appealing to organized labor for support. There is a wide difference of opinion among politicians as to how many votes he will receive.

The leading candidates are making active campaigns and have planned itineraries which will take them into every ward before election day, April 1. Former Mayor Harrison, now captain for the Red Cross in France, is doing all he can to help Hoyne. Recently he sent a number of letters urging election of Hoyne which were published in the newspapers.

As the campaign nears the close feeling is reaching a hectic state and personal abuse is becoming a matter of daily occurrence.

Straw votes taken in different sections of the city indicate that the fight is between Mayor Thompson and Sweitzer altho Hoyne seems to be gaining in strength as the campaign approaches its final stage.

Sweitzer's slogan is "Redeem Chicago" while Hoyne's advertising keynote is "For the Honor of Chicago." Hoyne accuses Sweitzer of plagiarism in paraphrasing his slogan.

For the first time in its history Chicago will be given an opportunity to vote on the wet and dry question at the April 1 election. A recent mandate of the Illinois supreme court ordered the election commissioners to place the question on the ballot. In view of the adoption of the national prohibition amendment to the federal constitution the drys decided not to make a campaign in Chicago so the wets apparently have the field to themselves. They expect to pile up a big plurality against prohibition.

DRUGGISTS WILL NOT SELL WHISKEY

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March.—Druggists of Springfield have decided not to carry whiskey for medicinal or other purposes after July 1. At a meeting of the legislative committee of the Illinois Pharmaceutical association, attended by members of the Springfield Retail Druggists association, a resolution was read asking the druggists of the state to refrain from applying for new licenses.

The druggists claim that the demand for whiskey would not be sufficient to warrant their paying $1,000 for the government license.

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" If Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them. How you fought against taking them.

With our children, its different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California" Syrup of Figs, which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt. —(adv.)

ANOTHER CHAPTER IN TRACTOR CONTROVERSY

Many Claim Distinction of Introducing Caterpillar Tractors Into Military Service—Peoria Company Charged With Infringement of Patent.

Peoria, Ill., March 21.—In the main office of the Holt Manufacturing company here there hangs a large frame enclosing numerous photographs of "caterpillar" tractors in war work and bearing the legend, "Getting a 'Holt' on the Hun."

Another chapter in the legal controversy over distinction of introducing the tractor into military service was recorded when Judge Louis FitzHenry in the United States court heard arguments on a motion of the defense for a new and particularized bill in the $10,000,000 damage case brought against the Holt Manufacturing company by Charles Paridy, Anna McLatchie and Fred Lothor of St. Louis, Mo. They claim infringement of patent, but attorneys for the company say the bill is so vague they are unable to determine just what is meant.

It is claimed that Paridy several years ago invented a non-friction roller similar to the one used in the "Caterpillar" and that he became ill and was unable to patent it until after the Holt people had secured a patent similar to his.

Since that day in September, 1916, when the monster British tanks of "Caterpillar" construction appeared on the battlefields of France and created a world sensational there have been various claims as to whose idea it was

The Electric Iron

will take the wrinkles
out of your face,

—the crick out of your back,

—the cramp out of your feet,

—the ache out of your arms.

And you'll enjoy doing your own ironing—the way you want it—as no
one else can do it.

J. C. Walsh

for adopting the tractor to the tank. Officials of the Holt company say that the tank and the tractor are two separate and distinct machines, both of which did inestimable service in the war. The "caterpillar" had been on the firing line nearly two years before the tank appeared, and it had been in commercial use throughout the world for a decade before it appeared on the battlefield.

In 1913 a friend, who had seen a demonstration of a "caterpillar" near Antwerp wrote to Major General (then Colonel) Swinton, British army engineer, that "here was a Yankee tractor that could climb anything."

In the meantime the German and Austrians had commandeered all the "caterpillars" from farms and were using them for moving heavy artillery. With the war broke out the Germans cabled large orders of tractors "for military purposes," but not one was furnished to the Central Powers.

Confronted with the need for heavy mobile artillery to offset the initial advantages of the Teu-tons, the British war department began to investigate the tractor and in September, 1914 engineers went to England, with a standard farm "caterpillar" and a sounding the British military officers with series of tests. The result was the adoption by the British of the "caterpillars" for moving artillery.

Major General Swinton, then acting as the "eye witness" of the British press on the battlefield, saw these farm tractors hauling guns and the sight drove home his idea of a moving land fortress.
The tank resulted. Colonel Swinton, thus inspired by the "caterpillar," has given full credit to this machine, invented by the American, Benjamin Holt, as the foundation and inspiration for the tank.

After the British tank appeared the "French" war department engineers hit upon a new kind of tank and many hundreds of the "forty-five" type tractors were purchased and used in fitting up the tanks. The "caterpillar" idea was embodied in every other tank developed later in the war.

As early as 1911 an American army officer who visited the Peoria plant was impressed with the possibilities in the "caterpillar" tractor for hauling artillery. It was in May, 1915, however, that the first army test was arranged at the arsenal in Rock Island, Ill.
Another claimant to the idea of adopting "caterpillar" tractors to military use is Dr. Frank Lydston of Chicago. For years Dr. Lyd-ston and M. M. Baker, vice president and general manager of the Peoria plant of the Holt company, have been intimate friends. Officials of the plant say it is quite possible Dr. Lydston had suggested the "caterpillars" for wartime use. Mr. Baker in a recent letter to Dr. Lydston gave him credit for suggesting the military use of tractors.

out of doors and so far it has been impossible to secure either a nurse or hired man.

PAIGE

The Most Beautiful Car in America

THE first cost of a motor car is an important consideration. But ultimate cost is vastly more important.

We, of the Paige Company, have always believed that freedom from repair bills and excessive depreciation is infinitely more desirable than a mere catch-penny list price. Therefore we have devoted ourselves to the production of cars—not mere price tags.

We have insisted upon using only the best of materials and the best of workmanship—cost what they may.
We have built up to a standard—not down to a price.

We have built a car that both we and our owners can believe in—a car that will outlast and out-perform any guarantee that we might write for it.

In a word, we have built the soundest and safest automobile investment that can be found on the market.

Our Desire--- A Pleased Customer

Now is the time to be ready for your corn crop. The way to be ready is to have the right Planter before you are going into the field. Our No. 71 is the real planter to study about. Come in and look it over. We can show you and prove to you that we are right.

ACCURACY

The hopper construction is such that the kernels are led unerringly into the cells. Each cell is always full. The triple valve construction means one hill always carried in reserve, assuring you the hill to be discharged is always ready and waiting, placing the hill just right. Therefore, an accurate check. This means no scattering, making it easy for cultivation, and an absolute uniform depth.

SIMPLICITY

The product of years of experience in planter building. Every convenience, but simplicity, our watchword.

DURABILITY

The proposition of simplicity added to proper construction and material means a tool that will give perfect service for years. We have in the No. 71 produced a most superior tool, and to know it you must see the No. 71 at
